DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restriction

1. This application is a 371 of PCT/FR03/01120. For applications filed under 371, PCT rules for lack of unity apply.

2. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Groups 1-34. Claims 1-11, 14, are drawn to a peptide selected from the group consisting of SEQ ID NO:1-34.

Groups 35-68. Claim 12, is drawn to a method for prevention of disease by administering a peptide selected from the group consisting of SEQ ID NO:1-34.

Groups 69-102. Claims 12-13, are drawn to a method for treatment of disease by administering a peptide selected from the group consisting of SEQ ID NO:1-34.

NOTE: Should any one of the Groups from 1-102 be elected, Applicant is required to select one peptide (one amino acid sequence) as set forth in SEQ ID NO:1-34. Once one peptide sequence is selected, all other sequences will be withdrawn from consideration.

Art Unit: 1646

The inventions listed as Groups 1-102 do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because under PCT Rule 13.2 they lack the same or corresponding special technical feature for the following reasons:

The PCT rules define a special technical feature as a feature which defines a contribution over the prior art. The first claimed invention of Group I fails to recite such a feature, since an immunogenic peptide derived from IL-1 β and identical to the peptide of instant SEQ ID NO:1 is described in EP218531 (See page 11, line 4, see Examples 3, 5-7). Since the first claimed invention lacks a special technical feature, the other claimed inventions cannot share a special technical feature with the first claimed invention.

The invention of Groups 35-68, 69-102, are distinct from the products of Groups 1-34 because the products of Groups 1-34 can be used in methods that are materially different from the therapy of Groups 35-102 such as in the production of distinct antibodies to the specific proteins. The methods of Groups 35-68, 69-102 are distinct because each recites method steps not required by the other. Furthermore, the methods are independent and distinct, each from the other, because the methods are practiced with materially different products, which are structurally and chemically different, and the products are administered to different patient populations, the novelty of the inventions lying in the products being administered and not the processes. Distinctness is further shown because each of the products in each method can be made and used without any one or more of the other products.

Applicant is advised that the response to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 C.F.R. 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 C.F.R. 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently-filed petition under 37 C.F.R. 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 C.F.R. 1.17(h).

Rejoinder under In re Ochiai and In re Brouwer

3. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102,

Art Unit: 1646

103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.

Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
